

Board Orientation Program for Directors
(May 30-31, 2018)
Prof R K Mishra & Ms J Kiranmai : Programme Directors

About the Programme

Institute of Public Enterprise (IPE), Hyderabad is organizing a two-day Board Orientation Programme for Directors under the aegis of National Foundation for Corporate Governance (NFCG), an initiative by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs, GoI. In the changing pressures and dynamics of business boards have herculean task to accomplish. In pursuit of good corporate governance, directors encounter a host of new challenges and risks. Constant change in rules of the game due to integration of global markets, emergence of knowledge economies, innovative technologies, cut throat competition and legal regulations make the governance job more complicated and challenging. In this back drop, a two day board orientation program for directors is planned to supplement the existing know how of board management. The above programme is designed to enable a comprehensive understanding of the broad context in which boards operate and the responsibility that comes with the board mandate.

Programme Objectives

The main objectives of the induction are as follows:

- Defining the dimensions of future boards in the light of prevailing board room process and practices
- To build core competencies in the dynamic functioning of the boards
- The Board's liability – the Indian perspective in the context
- Director's responsibility statement
- Corporate Governance Code - Performance evaluation to executives
- Related parties transactions

Programme Contents

It is proposed to cover the following topics during the two day induction programme on boards:

The role of the Board

- How the Board works?
- Corporate Governance and boards
- Government Policy on Corporate Boards
- Financial Literacy for boards
- Responsibilities and expectations of members
- International experience in the corporate world
- Legal framework
- Risk Management and whistle blower policy
- Corporate social responsibility and its wider scope under the new Companies Act.

Target Group

The programme would welcome the participation of Directors, Senior and Middle Level Executives, government officials in the public and private sector, future company secretaries and other professionals associated with boards.
