Summer Internship Programme (SIP)

The Summer Internship Programme in Institute of Public Enterprise (IPE) is a great opportunity for students to gain hands-on experience in the business world. The Summer Internship Programme at IPE is designed to achieve these objectives, benefiting students, institutes, and companies alike.

Objectives of Summer Internship Programme

1. Expose students to real-world business challenges and decision-making.
2. Develop analytical and problem-solving skills.
3. Foster networking opportunities with professionals and alumni.
4. Enhance career clarity and employability.
5. Provide opportunities for skill development and learning.

The Summer Internship Program emphasizes the evaluation of the student's performance at the workplace under the supervision of the management. These efforts have strengthened the close industry relationship at academic centres and also have paved the way for pre-placement offers to the students.

As a course requirement, every student of IPE is expected to complete an 6 to 8 week industry internship in the summer between the first and second year of the course. The summer placement process is held to facilitate these internships for the students. Most firms offer students Internship opportunity along with the stipend.. The summer internship process gains importance as many firms hire interns and after evaluating their work for two months offer them full-time positions in the form pre-placement offer (PPO).

Summer Internship Programme (SIP) recruitment process at IPE

The Summer Internship Programme's selection process is similar for most of the companies that visit our campus. The process starts with the company's 'Job Description' being circulated to our students.

The SIP recruitment process begins with companies registering their interest with the IPE-Summer Internship Programme Office. This involves submitting essential information, including Company profile, Job description, Stipend and benefits, and Recruitment criteria, Academic performance, work experience, skills, and other requirements.

IPE-SIP Department collects resumes from students who want to display their talents and experiences and submits them to the company. Companies then get these resumes and evaluate them using preset criteria such as CGPAs, rankings, academic achievements, work experience, and skills. Both sides then agree on feasible dates for the selection process.

Part-time Online SIP Opportunities

Students are interested in taking up part-time online SIP opportunities that are offered by the companies. These SIP can be done without disturbing students' academic schedules.

Summer Internship Programme Process

IPE has dedicated staffing and interview rooms, video conferencing facilities for online interviews, high-speed internet connectivity, waiting areas for recruiters, efficient logistics and hospitality support, well-furnished computer labs for online exams and classrooms with audio-visual equipment for presentations, making it easy for students and companies to communicate and conduct the entire selection process on our campus or online, as needed.
